Are you producing and sending the apparel or is that something that is up to us? The contract approval did not run through me, and details of it weren't always communicated to me. I am just the one responsible for making it work.

Hi Stacy,

Branded Items: Your contact states that we will be offering discount directory packages that include apparel (shirts, cap & travel bag), using the logo of your choice. We find that by offering the apparel, it builds/renews loyalty to the school. The sale of these products is what financially supports the project.

Script Closing: The closing depends on whether the alum orders or not. Let me add that and resend.

Best,

Rellen

I don't believe we are marketing any branded items for sale. Can you verify and send me new scripting that reflects that? Also, it just kind of drops off after the last ask. I am assuming there is a close to the call, and I'd like to see that.
